

JIRI KUKACKA

I am an Assistant Professor at the Charles University, Faculty of Social Sciences, Institute of Economic Studies, where I teach courses on Econometrics and Behavioral Finance. I have been a member of the Academic Senate of the Faculty from 2014 to 2016 and currently again since September 2018. In the meantime, as an alternate member, I actively participated at least in the Economic and Legislative Committee. The four main topics for my future activities in the Academic Senate of the Faculty are the following:

Efficient e-Government of the Faculty... we live in the 21st century!

Complete bi-linguality of all materials

both for students and professors
... what about to start with the web presentation of the Senate...

Revision of the Electronic evaluation of courses

Interdisciplinary research and support for research teams and projects across the Institutes of the Faculty
